1. This action is in response to the following communications: Amendment After Final, filed 06/16/2009.
2. Claims 1-14 are allowed.

REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Claims 1-14 are directed to statutory subject matter under 35 USC 101 because the "contents summarizing unit" claimed in independent claims 1 and 12 is defined as computer hardware in the specification. Independent claims 13 and 14 claim "A contents summarizing program stored on a computer readable medium".

The prior art, U.S. Patent No. 7,383,504 B1 to Divakaran et al., discloses a video summarization method which determines spatio-temporal attributes of a video or multimedia content (col. 3, l. 25-col. 4, l. 26). Divakaran teaches categorizing syntactic elements such as motion, color, and activity, such as a motion of a player in a sporting event (Fig. 3a, Fig. 3b; col. 7, l. 15-55).

U.S. Patent No. 7,055,168 B1 to Errico et al. teaches methods of describing an outline of a video based on event information, providing multiple levels of summary (col. 5, l. 15-col. 6, l. 11).

U.S. Patent No. 7,203,693 B2 to Carlbom et al. discloses methods of analyzing sensor data for real time indexing of multimedia data (col. 6, l. 39-col. 8, l. 44), and presenting scoring information for different devices (col. 9, l. 44-col. 10, l. 16).

Regarding independent claim 1, the claimed features "...wherein the surface sentence information is formed by being expressed from a view point of a designated player or a team" are not shown in the prior art. Divakaran teaches providing commentary for a sports program (Fig. 3c), however Divakaran discloses providing the commentary by an announcer (col. 7, l. 33-38), rather than from a viewpoint of a designated player or a team.

It would not have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to have combined the prior art of record to arrive at applicant's invention, since the claimed features are not disclosed in the prior art of record.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
